Being a survivor means having a responsibility to those who did not make it, it means telling the truth

Friendship, true friendship, knows no bounds

There is nothing more precious than memory, because it is the 'only way we have to revive those who are gone

ONE LIFE IS NOT ENOUGH

"IT'S NOT THE HELL
THAT MAKES US. IT'S TOO SENSITIVE, IT IS.
BEING SO SENSITIVE
THAT WE. MAKE GO THROUGH CONTINUOUS.
INFERNOS..."

The twins of Auschwitz

"In Auschwitz it was easy to die.
Surviving was a full-time job."

Reunion

"I would have gladly given my life for a friend."

Reunion

"I am worth more than all the Hohenfels in the world. No one has the right to humiliate me,
I assure you, whether king, prince or count."

Reunion

“My gaze rested on the boy who was about to become the source of my greatest happiness and my biggest desperation.”

Reunion

“For the first time I realized my smallness and the fact that our land was nothing more than a stone on a beach where, of stones, there were millions.”

The Children's Train

“Ameri, sometimes who lets you go loves you more than who holds you back.”

Le gemelle di Auschwitz

“Ad Auschwitz era facile morire. Sopravvivere era un lavoro a tempo pieno.”

The Captain and his Ship

He did it again.

The teacher repeated this year too that he is like the captain of a ship and that we, the crew, must obey him without a word. He told us in first grade, he repeated it in second grade and also in third grade.
